

GBA GENERAL CONDUCT RULES

Player's Code of Conduct

1. Players will show respect for coaches, other players, referees, spectators and teammates. Players will cheer and shake hands with their opponents after the game. Only positive comments will be exchanged during handshakes.
2. Any abuse, either verbal or physical, of any referee, another player or coach will not be tolerated. Violators risk not only forfeiture of the game involved, but also expulsion from the league. Swearing will not be tolerated and will result in ejection from the game.
3. Throwing of a ball in a fit of temper is grounds for immediate ejection from the game. The same is also grounds for suspension from one or more future games, depending upon the gravity of the offense and the player's prior behavior in the league.
4. Deliberate abuse of league equipment is grounds for suspension from one or more games. Abuse of league equipment is defined as the use of that equipment for any purpose other than its intended purpose. Any player guilty of breaking or damaging league equipment through an act of deliberate abuse will be required to reimburse the league for the replacement of that equipment and will be suspended, and will remain suspended, until such reimbursement is made. Additional sanctions will remain the option of the League including multiple game suspensions and expulsion from the league for the remainder of the participant's playing career.
5. Any player accused of damaging any Greece Central facilities or equipment will be immediately suspended from league participation pending determination of their playing status. The League reserves the right to impose any restrictions on the participation of the player including expulsion from the league for the remainder of the participant's playing career. The player (and his/her family) is financially responsible for any monetary damages. The person involved will be entitled to a Board hearing. The determination of the status of the participant by the Board is final.
6. I have read and will comply with these General Conduct Rules.
